Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 07.03.2014

*Read:-*Letter No.PRL/2014/GLC dated 7/2/2014 from the Principal, Government Law College, Thiruvananthapuram.

ORDER

Based on the resolution of the PTA General Body meeting & the recommendation of the College Staff Council, the Principal, Government Law College, Thiruvananthapuram as per the letter read above has submitted a proposal to introduce uniform to the students of the college on a step by step basis. The proposal is to introduce uniform to the first semester students of 3 year & 5 year LLB students of the college from the academic year 2014-15 onwards. The uniform prescribed is white shirt and black pants for boys and white top and black bottom churidar with black shawl or white sari and black blouse for girls. For the present students the uniform will be optional for the time being.

Government have examined the proposal. According to SCHEDULE III of the Bar Council of India Rules of Legal Education, 2008, the students placed under internship or in moot-court exercise shall have formal dress of legal professional during their internship period of study for the LLB courses. Government also feel that introduction of dress code and uniform will promote a better learning environment & discipline in the institution. In the circumstances, Government have decided to approve the proposal submitted by the Principal, Government Law College, Thiruvananthapuram and order accordingly. The Dress Code for the students of the first semester of 3 year & 5 year LLB of the college from the academic year 2014-15 onwards will be the following:

Male Students

White shirt, black trousers

Female Students

White top and black bottom churidar with black shawl or white sari and black blouse

The Principal, Government Law College, Thiruvananthapuram will take further action to implement the above order forthwith and to ensure that the uniform is made compulsory to all students gradually.
